MAIN FLOOR

The interior of the villa is divided into two floors, both being fully equipped and marvelously decorated. If we were to highlight a feature of the villa, it would be the long hours of light the villa receives.

Delving further into the villa, we will initially see an immense living room situated in the main area. The living room is ample and shines due to its mix of rustic and minimalistic decoration. The guests will be able to watch their favourite movies or shows in the large plasma TV, while the AC will cool the room to the guests ideal temperature in the warm summer months.

FIRST FLOOR

To access the first floor, we must walk up a curved fleet of stairs. In this floor we will find a large, breathtaking terrace, with fabulous views towards the ancient castle as well as the full vision of the gardens.

The spectacular terrace invites the guests to sit on it's benches and enjoy peaceful times and conversations with friends and family, or perhaps a tanning session fits better with the guests. That's not all! There is a solarium type terrace in which to fully take in the rays of sun, to achieve that highly desired skin tone.

Subsequently, we find more 3 marvelous double bedrooms, also equipped with en suite bathrooms, AC, television and fitted wardrobes. One of these rooms houses another large terrace, fitted with exterior furniture.

The view towards Dalt Villa from the terrace are noted by those who visit the villa as Awe-inspiring.
